

Israel:

God's Battle Axe

By: William N. Hollis, M.A.

Webster's defines a battle-axe thusly: "1. A heavy ax with a wide blade, formerly used as a weapon of war." Jehovah-God chose a "weapon of war." The Creator of the universe does not choose something which he does not use! "But", you ask, "Does God wage war?" And then you say, "I've never heard of such a thing in my entire life! My preacher has never told us that! Where does the bible say that? Please tell me!" Please turn the pages of your King James Bible to Jeremiah 51:20-21, and read,

"THOU (ISRAEL) ART MY BATTLE AXE AND WEAPONS OF WAR: FOR WITH THEE (ISRAEL) WILL I BREAK IN PIECES THE NATIONS, AND WITH THEE WILL I DESTROY KINGDOMS: AND WITH THEE I WILL BREAK IN PIECES THE HORSE AND HIS RIDER, AND WITH THEE WILL I BREAK IN PIECES THE CHARIOT AND HIS RIDER."

Perhaps you are wondering by now why you have not been told this before, or heard a "stirring sermon" preached on the subject? The answer is very simple. The "Establishment"¹ church teaches that the "Jews" are Israel, the "Chosen race," and if they were compelled to fit this scripture into this erroneous teaching, they would have to look around for some of the kingdoms and nations which the "Jews" had "broken up" and "utterly destroyed," and finding none their heresy would be exposed. Therefore, they simply disregard it and countless others which, if used as written, would prove the error in their teaching. It was Israel and not the "Jews" who conquered the Promised Land which the Holy Scriptures record so vividly for our benefit, and in so doing, they did "break in pieces" many Kingdoms and nations." But if the "Jews" are Israel, did Jehovah-God simply use them as His "Battle Axe" for the period of time necessary to gain control of the Promised Land from those Pagan nations, and then discard His "battle Axe" for 2000 years? Did Jehovah-God quit dealing with nations, and therefore have no further need of one, since the death and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ? If the "Jews" are Israel, then it goes without saying that he did, because there is absolutely no account of the "Jews" as a nation warring with any other nation after they were dispersed in 70 A.D.

Also couched within the above quoted scripture, Jehovah-God reveals to us that with Israel as His "Battle Axe," He will "break in pieces the horse and his rider" and "the chariot and his rider." This, too, was a future prophecy, as was the part which dealt with the "breaking up of nations and kingdoms." You see, it was the Prophet Jeremiah who received this message from Jehovah-God, and we know that Jeremiah lived in Judea under the reign of Zedekiah, the last Israelite King, some 700 years after the Israelites went into Canaan from the desert and "broke into" the nations which occupied it. We see, then, that these two statements by God regarding Israel as His "Battle Axe" would have to have taken place within the past 2000 years since the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. If the "Jews" are Israel, as the "Establishment" church proclaims, then we must find somewhere in the history of these past two millennia where the "Jews" have destroyed many nations" and "separated the warriors from their horses and chariots." Since we have already completed this exercise we will pass on to you our findings, and you may accept them or research the history of the past centuries for yourself.

¹ Search the web for the words "church 501c3 corporation".

Since the Roman General Titus leveled the city of Jerusalem, including the Temple in 70 A.D., until 1948 when the mini-state of Israeli was created by the U.N. and the subsequent migrations there by "Jews" from around the world, there was no "nation of Jews" and, consequently, no nations or kingdoms "broken up" by them. Nor can we find that, as a nation, they caused the cavalryman to be "separated from his horse and chariot." Horses and their riders, in war, are called cavalry. It was not until World War I that mechanized infantry, known as "tanks,"² were used for the first time. According to the Encyclopedia Americana, 1957 edition, "The improvement in automatic weapons, motor vehicles, radios, tanks, and planes after World War I, seemed to leave no mission for horse cavalry. Most nations replaced the horse with tanks, and armored cars." It was these armored machines that literally blew the cavalymen from their horses and wagons. To find out which race of people invented, engineered, tested, and fought in these machines, simply research the terms "cavalry" and "tanks" in your encyclopedia, and you will discover the true identity of the "Children of Israel."

After you have discovered which race of people actually fulfilled the prophecy quoted above in Jeremiah 51:20-21, then follow them down through the centuries in secular history and thrill at their conquering spirit, the battles they have won, the miracles they have performed, the lands they have conquered, and the continents they have colonized. When you have learned the history of this great nation of "Gentiles" (i.e. "of the same race, the same genes"), its accomplishments in both colonizing and subsequent civilizing so much of the entire world, and then come to the knowledge that this tiny nation is no larger than our state of Vermont – yet ruled India, for example, a nation of some 250 million people, for almost three centuries with just 36,000 troops – you will come to know that they and their "overseas cousins" are truly Jehovah-God's "Battle Axe" and, as such, they absolutely must be "the lost sheep of the House of Israel."

You will see, for the very first time, that God did not quit dealing with Israel as a nation of people upon the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord did not simply "go out of business" over these past 2000 years! You will learn, perhaps for the first time, that God's Word is true, and it says what it means, and means what it says, you will no longer have to "spiritualize" away such everlasting promises of God to Israel such as:

GENESIS 35:11

"And God said unto him (Jacob-Israel), I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations (a Commonwealth) shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins."

ISAIAH 43:21

"This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise."

ISAIAH 43:14-15

"Thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel... the creator of Israel, your

² The British shipped these armored vehicles in wooden crates and labeled them "Tanks" to confuse and deceive the Germans. Thus, they were called "Tanks."

King."

ISAIAH 43:16

"Thus saith the Lord, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters."

ISAIAH 43:19-20

"Behold, I will do a new thing now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert... to give drink to my people, my chosen."

ISAIAH 43:10

"Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me. And understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.*"

*Only one people, as a race, believed then and continued to believe in Jehovah-God of our Holy Bible. YHVH. To coin a current phrase made famous in the political arena, "READ MY (GOD'S) LIPS:" This race was chosen so "that ye (Israel) may know and believe me (God)." God did not say that He chose a race of people to disbelieve in Him which is exactly what the "Jews" did then and continue to do. The "chosen race" (Israel) was given "ears to hear, and eyes to see, from the foundations of the earth" by this same Jehovah-God. Can He lie? Can He make a mistake? You be the judge.

II JOHN 1:9

Plainly tells us, NO SON... NO FATHER... Read it!

"Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son."

PSALM 149:2

"Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King."

PSALM 149:6

"Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand." (In addition to the "Battle Axe," God also provided Israel with a broadsword.)

PSALM 149:7

"To execute vengeance upon the heathen,³ and punishments upon the people."

³ Webster's: "Heathen - 1. Orig. and in the Old Testament, a member of any nation or people not worshiping the God of Israel." As will be shown throughout this work, this is exactly what God's chosen race of people have been doing. It is the heathen within the Israel nations, and the heathen nations without, who find fault with everything we do!

PSALM 149:8

"To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron." (Of course, no one likes to have their hands tied, particularly thieves.)

PSALMS 149:9

"To execute upon them the judgement written: this honor have all His saints. Praise ye the Lord."

(By executing all of the above actions upon the heathen, which our Lord God has plainly ordained, according to God's Word, the "saints" pay "honor" to their God-Jehovah!)

As you can see, we have quoted only from three books of the Bible: Genesis, Isaiah, and the Psalms of David. These are representative verses found through-out the entire Bible which are filled with the same message: A STORY OF LOVE BETWEEN GOD THE FATHER, GOD THE SON, AND GOD'S CHOSEN RACE OF PEOPLE... THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL (JACOB).

In researching and writing from this Psalm, the Lord gave us both lyrics and music to the following:

"SING A PSALM # 149"

O sing unto the Lord a new new song
O sing of the Shepherd and His sheep.
We will sing unto the Lord a new song
Of a Kingdom on earth, which we will keep.

(Chorus)

So Praise the Lord.

Let Israel rejoice in her land.
Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand.
O sing unto the Lord a new song.
Let the children be joyful in their King
Let Israel rejoice in Him who made them;
With praises to God in everything!

(Chorus)

Israel: God's Battle Axe

So Praise the Lord

In the Islands of the sea, let it ring.

From the outback of Australia

To Greenhills in Ireland.

And with voices in accord... let us sing!

Let us sing unto the Lord a new song.

Let us sing unto Him, Psalm one-forty-nine.

Let us sing unto the Lord a new pledge,

That "I will be His, and He'll be mine!"

We are commanded in II Timothy 2:15 to not only study the scriptures (all of them), but to also "rightly divide" them. This is exactly what we will do with some of them, and you are invited to join in the exercise. If these verses do not make the point with you which we are propounding – that Jehovah-God chose a nation of people for His "weapons of war" against other people and other nations, to "break them in pieces" and in some cases "utterly destroy them" – it would be of little use to quote more of them. Jesus said to the Jews in the tenth chapter of John's Gospel, when asked if he was the Messiah or not:

"I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. But ye believed not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you."

Jesus went on to proclaim the fact that "my sheep hear my voice, and they follow me." Well, here is the voice of Jesus ("crying in the wilderness" of the "Establishment" church's heretical teachings), which we have quoted in the above scriptures... and let's see whether you hear His voice or not:

God said of Israel His Chosen ...		Which Race Does This Fit?
		The Jews?	Another Nation?
1.	God promised the seed of Jacob would become a nation, and a company of nations. (Gen. 35:11)		√
2.	God said of Israel, "Ye are my witnesses and my servant." (Isaiah 43:10)		√
3.	God promised Israel that He would "even make a way" for them "in the sea." (Isaiah 43:16)		√

4.	God promised Israel that He would make a way for them "in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19)		√
5.	God promised that Israel would "show forth His praise." (Isaiah 43:21)		√
6.	God willed it that Israel would praise Him in words. (Psalms 149:6)		√
7.	To outfit Israel to be His "battle axe," God put "a two-edged sword in their hand." (Psalms 149:6)		√
8.	According to God and His Word, Israel is "to execute vengeance (God's) upon the heathen." (Psalms 149:7)		√
9.	God further stated that Israel would "bind their (pagan) kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron." (Psalms 149:8)		√
10.	God willed it that Israel would "execute judgement upon them." (Psalms 149:9)		√
11.	God chose Israel to be His "battle axe and weapons of war." (Jeremiah 51:20-21)		√

Our public school systems being what they are today, and totally lacking in the teaching of relevant history, especially English and American histories, you may have difficulty in knowing the correct answer to some of the above questions; therefore, the following information should be of help to you in coming to the correct conclusions:

As we stated earlier, there is only one nation in the world named Great Britain, whose people are called "British". You may have already known this fact, but you probably do not know that this is a combination of two Hebrew words: "Brith-Ish." "Brith" means covenant and "Ish" means man. Put them together, and we have "British" or "Covenant Man." If you are surprised to learn that this word "British" is a Hebrew word which has been transliterated (not translated) into our English language, you will be overwhelmed to learn that we have in excess of 8,000 Hebrew words transliterated into our English language. But please keep on reading, as there are many more surprises awaiting you.

The British Battle Axe

I have read the testimony of many great witnesses for the Lord, who at some point in their lives came to the knowledge of the truth as to who the Israelites really are, and all say that this is the key to understanding the Holy Bible. They make such statements as: "Having this key to the Bible makes as much difference in reading it as there is between color television and black and white." I have experienced this to be true as well, however, it has added another dimension to my life – a true love for history (especially the history of our Anglo-Saxon, Celtic and Germanic ancestors) and a true love for God's Word.

While it certainly is true that the Lord has given us numerous "footprints," "signposts" and "birthmarks" of Israel, which if sought and followed will inevitably lead the student to the identity of the "lost sheep of the House of Israel," the fact that Jehovah-God chose "ISRAEL TO BE HIS BATTLE AXE, TO BREAK IN PIECES NATIONS, AND DESTROY KINGDOMS" without question is one of the greatest of all Biblical truths which stamps the brand of Israel on the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Scandinavian and Kindred race of people in a way in which all should see, as it can fit absolutely no race of people on earth except them. It is our hope that after reading and studying these Biblical "birthmarks" which God placed within His Holy Word for our benefit, you too will be able to identify these Israel people who, as a race, both believe in Jehovah and are His "witnesses," and who are "a blessing to the other nations of the world for (His) glory." Since we have only five races from which to choose, it will not be difficult at all!

The term "United Kingdom" itself is a tip-off to this fact. The first nations to form this "Company of Nations" (commonwealth) were England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Now, here is a promise which Jehovah-God made to ISRAEL, found in Psalms 89:3-4, which the "Establishment" church ignores completely:

"I (God) have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant, Thy seed (Webster: family stock; ancestry, descendants; posterity) will I establish forever; and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah."

PSALM 89:34

"My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that has gone out of my lips."

PSALMS 89:37

"It (the Covenant) shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah."

II Chronicles 13:4-5

"...Hear me (God), thou Jereboam,⁴ and all Israel; Ought ye not to know that the Eternal God of Israel gave the Kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?"

PLEASE NOTE THAT JEHOVAH-GOD HANDED OVER TO DAVID AND HIS DESCENDANTS THE KINGDOM OF ISRAEL FOREVER! Webster gives as the #1 definition of the word "Kingdom" the following: "1. A government or country, headed by a king or queen, a monarchy." If we truly believe God's Word, and further believe Him when he clearly states that he cannot and does not lie, then we must in earnest begin looking for this continuous Kingdom of Israel, with a descendant of David sitting on the throne since the last days of King Zedekiah in 487-6 B.C., who, of course, was the last king of the line of King David to rule in the "Promised Land" according to the Bible. Not only must we look for a "company of Nations"

⁴ The twelve tribes of Israel had split into two Kingdoms: The Kingdom of Israel (ten tribes with Jereboam as its king) and the Kingdom of Judah (two tribes with Rehoboam as its king). With few exceptions, from this point on when the term "Israel" is used, it is in reference to the ten tribes of Israel... not the two tribes of Judah.

which became God's "Battle Axe," we must also, with equal fervor, look for this nation to have a king or queen from the "House of David" ruling over them, since King Zedekiah was put to death, along with all of his sons, in the fifth century B.C.

Earlier we told you that England (the Brith-Ish Covenant Man) was the single great colonizer, civilizer and Christianizer of the entire world. Can this have been by accident? We think not; because if it was, Jehovah-God turned over the running of the world to someone else! It is these Anglo-Saxon, Celtic and Kindred peoples who have established and supported all of the international, benevolent societies in the entire world, which have been and still are "A BLESSING TO ALL OF THE OTHER PEOPLES" as their God, Jehovah, promised that ISRAEL would be! Can this be by accident? We think not!

As great and as telling all of these "marks of Israel" are, they should convince any objective person with "ears to hear" that the people we know as the "Jews" cannot possibly be the nations which are doing these things, because ABSOLUTELY NONE OF THE ABOVE PROMISES OF GOD TO ISRAEL COULD HAVE BEEN DELIVERED WITHOUT GOD HAVING PUT A "TWO-EDGED SWORD IN THEIR HANDS" AND MADE THEM HIS "WEAPONS OF WAR." This fact can be easily seen once you see the size and scope of the Brith-Ish Empire, and the unmatched influence for good it has exported throughout the entire world!

IT IS ALSO A FACT THAT, JUST AS HE MADE SURE NOT ALL PEOPLE WOULD REJECT HIM TWO THOUSAND YEARS AGO WHEN HE CAME TO EARTH THE FIRST TIME--BY CHOOSING A RACE AND GIVING THEM "EARS TO HEAR AND EYES TO SEE" --WHEN HE RETURNS A SECOND TIME TO RULE HIS PEOPLE FROM THE THRONE OF DAVID, HE HAS MADE SURE THAT HE WILL HAVE A PEOPLE TO RULE BY GIVING THEM HIS LAWS ON TWO TABLETS OF STONE WHICH HIS PROPHET, MOSES, BROUGHT DOWN FROM MT. SINAI, AND TO WHICH HIS SERVANTS, THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL, SAID IN UNISON, "THUS WE WILL DO!"

We have already pointed out that the "British Empire" or the "United Kingdom," whichever name you prefer, is the only commonwealth in history which was put together voluntarily by people of the same race and religion. Now all that remains for us to do is to see whether they have always been ruled over by descendants of David and if so, has it been a "kingdom" and does it have a "throne"? Please keep in mind that our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, when he returns to rule His Kingdom on earth, will occupy "the throne of David" which has been secured through the ages for this very purpose.

The Kingdom Of the Brith-Ish

LET US TAKE a brief look, then, at this kingdom which has literally kept the "throne of David" occupied these past two thousand years since our Lord's crucifixion and resurrection, to see whether or not you agree that "TRULY THIS MUST HAVE BEEN THE WORK OF THE LORD."

THE PEOPLE: Contrary to what most of us have been taught, the Erin Isle (Ireland) has an older history than either England, Scotland or Wales. Early Irish chronicles record the fact that their people came from Iberia (Spain). Ibiri is both the Hebrew and Celtic word for Hebrews. The list of "High Kings of Erin" goes back to Eremon and Eber,⁵ who ascended to the Irish ⁵ Probably named after Eber or "Heber," the ancestor of Abraham, "the first Hebrew" (Heber-Heber's = Hebrews).

Throne in 1700 B.C. (to put things in perspective, the Israelites went down to Egypt in the year 1750 B.C. and settled in "Goshen.") Some of the tribes of people making up the "Irish" were the Israelite tribes of Dan, Judah and Benjamin. The Irish word "Dunmore" literally means "more Dans." They were the Tuatha deDannan in Irish chronicles, which means "Tribe of Dan." They were the largest tribe comprising what is known in history as the Gaels. The Holy Bible testifies as to who these people were in Isaiah 28:11 where is found the following:

"For with stammering lips and another tongue, will the Lord speak to his people."

Strong's Concordance states the Hebrew word for "stammering is (would you believe it?) "Gael."

"The History of Ireland to the Coming of Henry II," first published in 1910, gives us a racial description of these interesting people with their "stammering lips." On page four is quoted: "the fifth occupation was by the Gael or Milesians. They were tall men with long skulls and red, golden-yellow, or flaxen hair. Our texts agree in stating that the Gael, as well as the previous occupants, all spoke the Celtic (Gaelic) tongue."

One last word about the racial characteristics of these amazing, talented and gifted people whom the Lord chose as His "Battle Axe" to "break into nations and destroy people." We have learned thus far that the term "British" is comprised of two Hebrew words, "Brith-Ish," which literally means "Covenant Man." It behooves us to remember here that the only people to whom Jehovah-God made a covenant in the entire Bible is the "Children of Israel" -- Abraham through his son Isaac, through Isaac's son Jacob (Israel), and through Israel's twelve sons: Judah, Simeon, Dan, Benjamin, Levi, Issachar, Zebuulon, Asher, Naphtali, Gad, Reuben, Joseph, Ephraim and Manasseh. It becomes obvious, then, if we have our "blinders" off, that the tribes of people which originally comprised the "British" were the "lost tribes of the House of Israel."

We have learned also that the dominant tribe of people which comprise those loveable Irish was the Tuatha de Dannan -- translated from the Hebrew, the "Tribe of Dan." Dan, you will recall, is one of the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel" (Jacob) and that Jacob predicted that "Dan would never leave his ships." Is there any question that island people must, of necessity, be mariners? Secular history records that after these Dannan conquered all of the "Emerald Isle," they jumped over the narrow straight between the northern tip of that country and landed on what they later named Scotland. This much you probably already know; however, you are about to learn something about them which I am certain that you have never known before.

In the year 1320 A.D., Robert the Bruce, king of Scotland, sent to Pope John XXII the "Declaration of Arbroath," written in fluent Latin and which is commonly known as the "Scottish Declaration of Independence." In this most prized treasure of the Scottish people, whose racial characteristics --red hair and blue or blue-green eyes are identical with those of the Irish and much of the English, is found a statement about their ancient heritage and also the route which they traveled to arrive in their "new land from which they would never be moved." ⁶ We will quote from the third and fourth paragraphs of the declaration which may be viewed in the Register House in Edinburgh:

⁶ II Samuel 7:10: "Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more..." Since God gave this prophecy to King David, who at the time was reigning from Jerusalem, the capital of the "Promised Land," we must conclude that God had another place in mind for Israel.

"Most Holy Father and Lord, we know and from the chronicles and books of the ancients we find, that among other famous nations our own, the Scots, has been graced with widespread renown."

"Thence they came, twelve hundred years after the people of Israel crossed the Red Sea, to their home in the west where they still live today... they have held it free of all bondage ever since. In their kingdom there have reigned one hundred and thirteen kings of their own royal stock, the line unbroken by a single foreigner."

"Our Lord Jesus Christ, after His Passion and Resurrection, called them, even though settled in the uttermost parts of the earth, almost the first to His most holy faith. Nor would He have them confirmed in that faith by merely anyone but by the first of His Apostles by calling -- though second of third in rank -- the most gently Saint Andrew, the Blessed Peter's brother, and desired him to keep them under his protection as their patron for ever."

We learn here that the ancestors of our redheaded and blond-headed kinsmen were known as "Scythians" in these earlier centuries, and that they left their home in middle Europe. Upon reaching the "Great Sea" (Mediterranean), they sailed the portion which formed the west coast of Italy, known as the "Tyrrhenian Sea," and sailed through the "pillars of Hercules" (Straights of Gibraltar), settling "for a long time" on the west coast of Spain, which is still known as the "Iberian Peninsula" and one of its chief rivers is the Ebro, named from Eber, or Heber, the ancestor of Abraham, and from whom the name Heber or Hebrews was derived. Also, the etymology of the name of the Spanish city of Cadiz is found in the name of Gad, or Gads, one of the twelve tribes of Israel. This name has lasted down through the ages, and is found today in the colloquial expression "always gadding about." This, of course, was what the tribe of Gad was always doing!

Another point to consider here is the unassailable fact that colonies from most, if not all of the twelve tribes of Israel, had already settled up and down the shores of the Mediterranean Sea (the Great Sea), extending all the way through the "Pillars of Hercules" to the "Tin Isles" (British Isles = Brith-ain, Hebrew for "Covenant Land.") The Scots state in their famous declaration: "The Britons they drove out, the Picts they utterly destroyed." This happens to be identical language which God used in the scripture from Jeremiah which is the thesis of the work... Israel is to be His "Battle Axe" and He will "utterly destroy" people with them! This should convince any person without "theological blinders" that the Irish, Scots and English (of the same racial characteristics) are Israelites. To add more proof, if needed, they tell you that they "left Spain and came to their home in the west (Ireland and Scotland); here they still live." True to form, they named Ireland "Hibernia" or "the Land of the Hebrews," and fulfilled God's promise to Israel in II Samuel 7:10 of "a new land from which they would not be moved"

This also, of course, fulfills Jehovah-God's promise to Israel (Jacob and his seed) that his seed would be "multitudinous" and would become "many nations." A good secular history of England such as "The History of England" by Edward M. Lancaster, published in 1887, will give you a complete account of how these "Irish" and "Scots" melded with others of the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel" in England. The Scots were joined in 1603 A.D. when James VI of Scotland became James I of England. However, it was not until the reign of Queen Anne that the Parliaments of these two countries began to operate as one. This union formed the springboard for the fruition of two important promises of Jehovah-God to Israel, and which cannot be fitted to any other race of people on earth... except the English! One, of course, is the promise of God to Israel that they would become a "company of Nations" and that "a great and powerful nation" would spring from the seed of Ephraim and Manasseh, the two sons of Joseph. The British Commonwealth of Nations is the seed of Ephraim, and the U.S.A., (the great and powerful nation) of course, is Manasseh. Who else can they be? The Jews certainly do not have a "company of Nations" nor a "great and powerful nation" of "multitudinous seed." Both Great Britain and the United States of America have all twelve tribes of Israel represented within their domain, and it is they who have become not only Jehovah-God's "Battle Axe" or "Weapons of War," but also His missionaries (blessing) and witnesses to the four corners of the earth!

In the "Special Coronation Souvenir Number" of the "Picture Post" magazine, June 13, 1953, are found breath taking pictures of people, troops, etc., who came from all over the world to raise their voices in unison with "God Save The Queen" (or King), which is taken from I Kings 1:34 in your King James Bible:

"From Canada, Australia, Ceylon; from Africa, British Guinea; from the Four Corners of the Commonwealth (earth), soldiers, sailors and airmen, poured into London to march before Her Majesty on Coronation Day."

The Four Corners Of the Earth

ON PAGE 34 of the "Picture Post" is a map of the world with the caption "The Jet-Age Commonwealth." The eight self-governing members of the Commonwealth (seven realms and the Republic of India) are shown in black, and the air miles plus flying time are shown from London to the capitols of these self-governing members. It is awesome -- look

1. London:	To Ottawa, Canada	3,350 miles and 7 hours
2. London:	To New Deli, India	4,200 miles and 11 hours
3. London:	To Canberra, Australia	10,500 miles and 21 hours
4. London:	To Wellington, New Zealand	11,700 miles and 24 hours
5. London	To Praetoria, South Africa	5,400 miles and 11 hours

Other Commonwealth territories are in a light tone. They include such areas as:

1. HONG KONG
2. SINGAPORE
3. NORTH BORNEO
4. NEW GUINEA
5. BRITISH HONDURAS
6. BRITISH GUIANA

GOD PROMISED ISRAEL

"THE COASTLAND AND ISLANDS IN THE SEA"

1. THE SOLOMON ISLANDS GROUP
2. THE FIJI ISLANDS GROUP

3. THE SAMOAN ISLANDS GROUP
4. THE BAHAMA ISLANDS GROUP
5. THE ISLE OF JAMAICA
6. PLUS NUMEROUS OTHER GROUPS SUCH AS THE FALKLANDS, THE SEYCHELLES, ETC.
7. LET US NOT FORGET "THE BRITISH ISLES," THE MOTHER COUNTRY.

No other nation or race of people on earth can be crammed into this commonwealth mold, no matter how hard our "Bible Commentators" try! In order to accomplish this commandment of our Lord to take the gospel into the "four corners of the world," which was for the most part uncivilized, it was necessary to use ships and troops for "softening up exercises" before the missionaries could come in safely with their Bibles, tracts, and schools. Even with all of this benevolent help to these "dusky" people on their unproductive lands... they do not like us as a race! Also, as a race they have never accepted Christ Jesus as their Saviour. However, the answer to this troubling fact is readily found in the Scriptures. Jesus said it Himself: "YOU ARE EITHER FOR ME OR AGAINST ME." There is no neutrality where Jesus Christ is concerned. The unbelievers are "anti-Christ" and, therefore, "anti-Christians." We are peculiar in that we are "un-colored," the "Whiteys" or the "Palefaces;" but then this is another birthmark of Israel since God stated several times that His "chosen" are a "peculiar" race. Let us not forget, however, that Jehovah-God chose Israel for his "Battle Axe," to perform the very functions which we have above discussed.

If, at this point, you still need further proof of which race of people wears the mantle of "God's Battle Axe," in the book "The Dynamics of War and Revolution" by Lawrence Dennis, published in 1940, is found a list of the wars of England on pages 104-6:

WARS OF ENGLAND

(EPHRIAM)

(* indicates war with non-Israel or Pagan nations--Ed.)

1776-84	North American (with France)
1778-81	First Mahratta War*
1780-84	War with the Netherlands
1782-84	First Mysore War*
1790-92	Second Mysore War*
1793-1802	Revolutionary War (with France)
1801	War with Denmark
1802-06	Second Mahratta War*
1803-14	War with France

1806	Sepoy Revolt*
1807-12	War with Russia*
1810-12	War with Sweden
1812-15	War with United States
1814-17	Goorkha War*
1815	Hundred Days War (Waterloo)
1817-18	Third Mahratta War*
1824-25	First Burma War*
1824-25	Ashanti War*
1825	Burma War*
1840-41	Egyptian Insurrection*
1840-42	War with China*
1843-49	Sikh Wars*
1843	Intervention in Uruguay*
1845-56	Intervention in Argentina*
1851-52	Kafir War*
1852-53	Second Burma War*
1856-56	War with Russia*
1856-57	War with Persia*
1856-60	War with China*
1857-58	Mutiny of the Sepoys in India*
1863-64	Ashanti War*
1863-69	Maori War*
1867-68	War with Abyssinia*
1874	Ashanti War*
1878-80	War with Afghanistan*
1879	Zulu War*
1880-81	War in Transvaal

1881-84	War of the Sudan*
1897-98	Intervention in Crete*
1899-1902	Boer War
1899	Boxer Insurrection
1901-02	Somali War*
1903-05	Tibet Expedition*
1908	War on Northwestern Boundary of India*
1914-18	World War I
1919	Afghan War*

(Total for 150 years: 54 wars, lasting 102 years, or 68% of the time)

WARS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (MANASSEH)

List of principal wars, military expeditions, occupations, campaigns, and other disturbances, except domestic troubles, in which the United States has participated in the first 158 years of its history

(indicates war with non-Israel or pagan nations--Ed.)*

Began	Ended	Time Consumed
War of the Revolution
April 19, 1775	Jan. 14, 1785	8 years, 9 months
Wyoming Valley Disturbances and Shay's Rebellion
1782	Jan. 5, 1787	5 years
Northwest Indian Wars* and Whiskey Rebellion
Jan. 1790	August 1795	5 years, 8 months
War with France
July 9, 1798	Sept. 30, 1800	2 years, 3 months
War with Tripoli*
July 10, 1802	June 4, 1805	3 years, 11 months
Northwest Indian Wars*
Nov. 1811	Oct. 1813	2 years

War with Great Britain
June 18, 1812	Feb. 17, 1815	2 years, 8 months
War with Algiers (Naval)*
March 1815	June 1815	4 months
Seminole Indian Wars*
Nov. 10, 1817	Oct. 31, 1818	11 months
Yellowstone Expedition*
July 4, 1819	Sept. 1819	3 months
Blackfeet Indian Wars*
April 1, 1823	Oct. 1 1823	6 months
LaFevre Indian War*
June 1827	Sept. 1827	3 months
Sac and Fox War*
April 1, 1831	Oct. 1, 1831	6 months
Black Hawk War*
April 16, 1832	Sept. 21, 1832	5 months
Nullification Troubles in South Carolina
Nov. 1832	Feb. 1833	3 months
Cherokee and Pawnee Disturbances*
June 30, 1833	Dec. 1839	6 years, 6 months
War with Mexico*
April 25, 1846	May 30, 1848	2 years, 1 month
Various Indian Wars* (Cayuse, Navaho, Comanche, Kickapoo, Snake, Sioux, Seminole)
1848	1861	13 years
Civil War
April 15, 1861	Aug. 20, 1866	5 years, 4 months
Various Indian Wars*

Israel: God's Battle Axe

1865	1890	25 Years
Sioux Indian War*
Nov. 23, 1890	Jan. 19, 1891	2 months
Apache and Bannock Indian Trouble*
June 30, 1892	June 30, 1896	4 years
Spanish American War*
April 21, 1898	April 11, 1899	1 year
Philippine Insurrection*
April 11, 1899	July 15, 1903	4 years, 3 months
Boxer Expedition*
June 20, 1900	May 12, 1901	11 months
Cuban Pacification*
Sept. 29, 1906	April 1, 1909	2 years, 6 months
First Nicaragua Expedition* (Marines)
July 1912	August 1925	13 years, 1 month
Vera Cruz Expedition*
April 21, 1914	Nov. 26, 1914	7 months
First Haiti Expedition* (Marines)
July 1915	Dec. 1915	7 months
Punitive Expedition into Mexico*
March 15, 1916	Feb. 5, 1917	11 months
World War I
April 6, 1917	July 2, 1921	4 years, 3 months
Second Haiti Expedition* (Marines)
April 1919	June 1920	1 year, 1 month
Second Nicaragua Expedition*
Aug. 24, 1926	Jan. 2, 1932	5 years, 5 months

(In 158 years, there was warfare practically all of the time.)

For further interest here, we will bring the American "Weapon of War," the tribe of Manasseh, up to date to see whether or not God is still on his throne and Israel is still his "Battle Axe."

	Began	Ended	Time Consumed
World War II	Dec. 8, 1941	July 26, 1946	5 years, 8 months
Korean PoliceAction"*	June 27, 1950	July 27, 1953	3 years, 1 month
Viet Nam War*	Aug. 1965	Apr. 30, 1975	Approx. 10 years
Grenada Expedition*	Oct. 25, 1983	Dec. 1983	2 months
Panama Expedition*	Dec. 1989	Dec. 1989	1 month
Somalia Relief Expedition*	Dec. 9, 1992	March 1994	1 year, 4 months
Persian Gulf War*	Jan. 16, 1991	Feb. 28, 1991	2 months

As you can see from the above, for the past two hundred years, both England and America have been almost constantly at war. Also, aside from several internal confrontations there were occasional wars with other tribes (nations) of the same race. The British, as well as we Americans, have always warred against the pagan (non-believing) or uncivilized peoples of the earth! In other words, we have done exactly what we were chosen to do. We were and are God's "Battle Axe"! We are God's "Weapon of War." We have carried out God's commission to us (Israel) to "break into nations, and utterly destroy people."

The Israelites have always done this, as is seen in the case of Judah and Israel splitting up the kingdom and then warring against each other in 938 B.C. God told Rehoboam, the King of Judah, who was preparing to fight Israel to bring them back into the kingdom, to "leave them alone... this is my business." And so is all of the above - God's business.

From the book, "The Lives and Lessons of the Patriarchs," authored by The Reverend John Cummin, D.D, F.R.S.E., London, 1865, the following quotation seems very appropriate here: "GOD IS IN HISTORY FAR MORE VISIBLE THAN IN NATURE." To this we can but say "Amen."

We have shown you only the last two centuries of England's wars. A review of their early history-reveals that they were constantly at war with non-Israel or Pagan nations, and occasionally within their own tribes or nations! You have but to read the Biblical account of the "Children of Israel" from the time of their exodus from Egypt (1320 B.C.) to the Babylonian Captivity of Judah and Benjamin (585 B.C.) and you will quickly see that they may even have exceeded the records of England and the U.S.A. quoted previously. Of course, this is but one of the parallels of these ancient Israelites to our contemporary Anglo-Saxon Israel nations. Follow our Father Abraham in his journey from Ur of the Chaldes down to the land of Canaan (the Promised Land). Picture him in his "wagons" going southwest, followed by his large herds of cattle and sheep. See him around the campfire at night surrounded by his family and servants... swapping stories back and forth about the day's events... the little calf that got separated from its mother... or the little lamb that strayed from the fold and was dragged away by the wolves. This is a scene which was repeated thousands of times down through the centuries and which culminated in the westward trek of our Israelite fathers. That old Liar and Counterfeiter, the Devil, has tricked us for generations into believing that race and race-culture are not important; but God's word tells a different story... for those who will listen!

The Kingdom of Israel, which was comprised of ten tribes of the "Children of Israel," operated as an independent nation until 721 B.C. when they were taken captive by Assyria and settled in the area south of the Caspian Sea. These were Israelites and numbered over 3.5 million people who were NEVER CALLED JEWS IN THE BIBLE! Both the Holy Bible and secular histories are in accord that they absolutely never returned to the "Promised Land."

These "weapons of war," which Jehovah-God the Father had supplied with "two-edged swords in their hands," fought their way out of their Assyrian captivity in the sixth century B.C., and into the area between the Caspian and Black Seas (known as the Caucasus) under tribal names of Cimmerian Sythian, and the Beth-Sak (the Phoenician name for House of Isaac).

These stalwart "Children of Isaac" continued to fight their way west and were called "Caucasians" by the secular "press" because of their having come from the Caucasus Mountain region. After having been called "the sons of Isaac" or "Isaac's sons" and as is always the case in the etymology of words, their name was shorted to "Saxons." However, it was under the tribal names of Cimmerians, Goths, Astrogths, Visagoths, Vandals, Dannans, Iberians, Celts, Gaels, Vikings, Normans, Danes, Jutes, Flemmings, Frisians, etc., that they defeated and dissected the Roman Empire which extended the length and breadth of the "known" world. Under God's direction most, if not all of these tribes had representatives who, at one time or another, crossed the English Channel" and colonized the "Tin Isles". They fought each other until early in the eighth century when Egbert, of the Saxon line became king and "called the country England from the Angles, the most powerful of the three tribes. This is generally regarded as the beginning of the English monarchy." ("History of England" by Lancaster).

Of great interest here is the fact that Ireland (Hibernia = "land of the Hebrews") had a continuous king-line from "Eremon and Eber in 1700 B.C. down to Brian Boru (Eber) in 1002 A.D." ("History of Ireland to the Coming of Henry II" by Ua Clerigh). These were Israelites, principally from the tribe of Dan, who, as we mentioned earlier, were mariners and consequently colonized up and down the coasts of the Mediterranean Sea all the way to the "Tin Isles." The bloodline of Judah was infused into this king-line when Tamar Tea Tephi, (one of the daughters of King Zedekiah, the last of the Davidic line of kings to rule in Judea), married Eochaidh (Eremon-Heremon) and thus became Queen of Ireland. We have earlier pointed out that members of this tribe moved into "Scotland" from Ireland⁷ and established a nation with kings there and ruled until their king, James VI, became King James I of England in 1603 A.D., establishing the Stuart family on the throne which they occupied until 1714 A.D.

Thus, we can see the workings of God through these nations, and with the crowning of James I, we can see God forming His "company of nations" which certainly must be in existence somewhere or God's Word is in error (Genesis 17:4-6, 15,16; 35:11; 48:19; Ephesians 2:12). But Jehovah-God does not err, nor does He lie. Therefore, when we read His covenant with

⁷ One of the earliest names for Ireland was "Scotia."

King David in II Samuel 7:4-17, we can "go to the bank with it." However, first let us consider a very pertinent message given us by the Commentator at the beginning of this chapter:

Message

"II Samuel continues the theme: God is working his divine purpose through all the events of Israel's history preparing a people through whom the Messiah will come."

With this thought in mind, let us now read some of the things which God would do for David and his seed:

"And when thy (David's) days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his (David's) kingdom."

"He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his Kingdom for ever."

"I will be his father, and he shall be my son..."

"And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever."

"According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David."

Can you not see and feel the workings of Jehovah-God throughout these last two thousand years of history since the crucifixion and resurrection? Isn't it thrilling to learn that these promises of God were kept... that there is a seed line not only of David's blood (Judah), but of the other eleven tribes of Israel who are in existence today and carrying out all of the commissions which our Father God gave us (Israel) to do? Tell me...where is there today a "company" or Commonwealth of nations from which "a great and powerful nation" emerged, composed basically of the same race of people, with the Lord's named placed upon them and their religion, and who are His "witnesses" . . . His "Battle Axes" . . . and who are a "blessing to the other nations of the world for (His) glory"?

Isn't it trilling to learn that not only were these tall, stalwart, blonde, red-headed Danes, Normans, Vikings, Celts, etc., our ancestors, but they were also the "sons of Isaac"-Saxons, and the "sons of Jacob"-Jacobs-Jacobson, etc., as well? This knowledge should make your reading of the Old Testament a true pleasure as God intended it to be, because you now know that those loveable patriarchs, such as Moses, Abraham, Joshua and King David, were truly our own blood relatives, and as such, we are the true "Children of Israel," not his "adopted" children as the "Establishment" church contends!

Can We Know That God Uses His Battle Axe?

THE ANSWER to this is a resounding YES! GOD HAS, IS, AND WILL CONTINUE TO USE ISRAEL AS HIS "BATTLE AXE," We can know this because the Bible (God's Word) tells us so! Listen:

ROMANS 9:17

"For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth."

If we follow the exodus of the "Children of Israel" from Egypt, we see very clearly how God orchestrated them to the banks of the Red Sea with the Pharaoh and his army in quick pursuit. We see how God strengthened Israel's faith in Him by making them face either Pharaoh and sure destruction or the raging waters of the Red Sea and equal destruction. We see that when they stepped out in faith into the water, it parted and they were able, some 3.5 million⁸ of them, to traverse it on dry land. When the Egyptian army gave chase, the waters closed on them, burying the entire army at the bottom of the sea! This was no more of a miracle than Cortez and his band of 600 Conquistadors marching into Mexico City against King Montezuma and his 44,000 Palace Guards and defeating them. Or the British with 36,000 troops subjugating India with some 250 million people! History is rife with examples of the success of both British and American armies. The above scripture plainly states that God brought the Pharaoh into power and made him so powerful a ruler that when God brought him down as He did in the Red Sea, the entire world would be able to see God's power. This prophecy has certainly been fulfilled since all of the world, at one time or another, has learned of God's power in causing the Red Sea to part so that the "Children of Israel" could safely cross! What a testimony to the power of Jehovah-God!

God Brings Evil Upon People

FOR MOST OF YOU who have been brought up in "Establishment" churches, hearing nothing but LOVE, LOVE, LOVE, and the "Social Gospel," this teaching will be hard for you to take and, perhaps, even believe. This is indeed sad because God's "chastising whom He loves" and His retribution upon whom He hates is an integral part of God's Word, the Holy Bible. Listen to what our Lord said to Israel, whom He chose and loves, through the Prophet Jeremiah and found in Chapter 32:42:

"For thus saith the Lord: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people (Israel), so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them."

Now, if Jehovah-God will "bring evil" upon those He loves, what do you think He will do to those less favored ones? Well, why not go the scriptures to find out?

ISAIAH 48:14

"...He (God) will do His pleasure on Babylon, and His arm shall be on the Chaldeans."

⁸ Brown's Bible Dictionary.

JEREMIAH 25:9

"Behold, I will send and take all the families of north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the King of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will UTTERLY DESTROY THEM, ...and perpetual desolations."

JEREMIAH 23:19

"Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked."

JEREMIAH 25:12

"And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations."

II KINGS 19:35

"And it came to pass that night, that an angel of the Lord went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred fourscore and five thousand (185,000): and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses."

Here we see that even the Pagan kings, such as the king of Babylon, are Jehovah-God's servants. The Bible tells us that God even brought Cyrus, the king of Persia, up to free the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, who were taken captive by Babylon in 585 B.C. The scriptures are myriad of how Jehovah-God works through men and governments. For example, the above scripture detailing how God had one of his angels strike dead 185,000 Assyrian soldiers who were entrenched around the city of Jerusalem, tells us what God did. In the following scripture He tells us the effect: "So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh." This was an absolute miracle of the Lord, and it had to happen in order for the following prophecy to be fulfilled:

II KINGS 19:32-34

"Therefore, thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city (Jerusalem) nor shoot an arrow there... By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the Lord... For I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake."

The foregoing is a prime example of our Lord working through leaders and nations to carry out His plans and promises here on earth! In this we have seen that God did not want the city of Jerusalem taken because He wanted to preserve a "remnant of Judah" who, at a later date, would come out of captivity in Babylon to rebuild the walls and the temple of the city. We can know this because, in the 30th verse of the same chapter, we find: "And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward." This scripture of prophecy, that Judah would "take root downward, and bear fruit upward," was one which pertained to David's king seed-line. You see, until the death of King Zedekiah of Judah in 585 B.C., which was related previously, all of their kings from the first one, King Saul in 1037 B.C., down to Zedekiah, were of the male seed, and the "root downward" means that this would be "overturned" and that a female seed would break this chain with a queen of Judah's seed ruling.

This prophecy, of course, was fulfilled when the Prophet Jeremiah was instructed by God to take Zedekiah's daughters to Egypt to prevent their being killed by the Babylonians also. As earlier stated, Scota, one of these daughters, had a daughter named Tamar Tea Tephi who married Hermon, an heir to the throne of Ireland (Hibernia) and became queen when he was enthroned! Just look at all the historical events later fulfilled in the events of our countries, but which are contained in the simple, one line statement of Jeremiah: "A remnant of Judah would be saved" - FULFILLED WHEN JUDAH WAS TAKEN CAPTIVE TO BABYLONIA IN 585 B.C., AND A REMNANT (APPROX. 44,000) RETURNED 70 YEARS LATER TO REBUILD THE TEMPLE. Then, "the house of Judah shall... take root downward, and bear fruit upward" was FULFILLED WHEN TEA TEPHI BECAME QUEEN OF IRELAND.

"God is in History Far More Visible Than in Nature"

CERTAINLY WE CAN SEE how the Lord had worked out His plan in all of the above instances; but to make this point even more vivid to you, we will quote from the book "The History of England" by Lancaster, the following events which were absolutely necessary to accomplish before "the Church" could be reformed and the Bible put into the hands of the common people. We are all familiar with the fact that the Great Reformation which began with Martin Luther in Germany, swept on into the Kingdoms of Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, and the Netherlands. Surely, God's hand was in this entire operation; however, we will focus only on the measures which were necessary to bring it about in England. We quote:

"England was fully awake to the events occurring in Germany. King Henry (VIII), although a friend to reform in the church, still held to it's principal tenets. We have seen how, a little later, in 1529, a breach had occurred between king and pope, on account of the divorce of Catherine. This gradually widened into complete alienation, and Rome and England, bound together eight hundred years by that most sacred of ties, a common faith, were sundered forever. By a series of parliamentary enactment's, beginning in 1531, annates (the first year's income of vacant bishoprics) to Rome were abolished, all appeals to the pope forbidden, papal jurisdiction over England extinguished, and finally, in 1534, the King of England was declared to be the Supreme Head of the Church of England. It was now that the bull of excommunication, long held over the head of Henry, was hurled against him. But the Rubicon had been crossed, and there was no alternative but a march on Rome."

"Speech against the pope was no longer heresy; but denial of Henry's Supremacy was made high treason. All of the powers of pope and king were now concentrated in the person of Henry. He dictated the utterances of the pulpit as well as the enactments of the parliament; he controlled the ecclesiastical as well as the civil courts; he declared what was truth and what was heresy. Bishops and archbishops held their places only at his pleasure; and into his hand were poured the vast revenues that for centuries had flowed so steadily to the Vatican. No priest could preach without a royal license, and no license was given without the Oath of Supremacy. Every priest was compelled to declare to his assembled parish their absolution from allegiance to the pope, and the duty of obedience to the new Head of the church. There were the mute and bewildered people, constrained by respect for law on one hand, and reverence for religion on the other, carried peacefully through the first and most critical step of a great religious revolution. In other nations the Reformation advanced only through a sea of blood.

"Henry's next step was to reform the faith and practice of the church. He drew up with his own hand the articles of religion. They made the Bible the sole ground of faith; reduced the sacraments from seven to three, namely: Penitence, Baptism and the Lord's Supper; retained transubstantiation and confession, but added justification by faith; and rejected pilgrimages, purgatory, indulgences, the worship of images and relics, and masses for the dead. The Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer were required to be taught in every school and family. A copy of Tyndal's Bible, the first ever translated in English, revised by Coverdale in 1535, was ordered to be chained to the pillar or desk of every church in England, and to be open to the reading of all. In 1539, a translation of the Bible was made by Cranmer."

This is perhaps the reason the Revolution was bloodless. Certainly, we can see God's hand in all of this! There is no ifs, ands or buts on our part. The clay cannot say to the potter, "Why did you make me thusly?" We are the clay and God is the potter. A current joke is: "Where does an elephant sleep? Anywhere he wants to." And I say, "What does Jehovah-God do? Anything he wants to." Our vain protestations, such as "A just God wouldn't do this" or "A loving God wouldn't do that... this isn't merciful... how could God do this?" are hollow, unscriptural utterances, and do not honor our God, the Great "I Am" of the Holy Bible. If we would but spend the time reading history and the Bible that we spend watching television, we would be able to see God's workings in the affairs of men and nations, and our faith would be increased. One thing we could learn which is totally omitted from the teachings of the "Establishment" church, would be the many characteristics which Jehovah-God has attributed to himself, such as: JEALOUSY, HATRED, ANGER AND VENGEANCE, in addition to LOVE, KINDNESS, FORGIVENESS and MERCY.

If, then God uses Pagan nations to be his servant and do His will, why should it be difficult for us to believe that He chose a nation (people) to be His "Battle Axe"? His "weapons of war"? Well, difficult or not, Jehovah-God did chose a race of people to be and to do all of these things for Him on planet earth! No other nation or people has ever received this distinction, and certainly has never exhibited these true marks of Israel, except one. Though this statement is true, as overwhelming scripture and historical facts are witnesses to its truth, the "Establishment" church, which is presently "of the world" rather than "in the world," not only carefully declines to preach it... they even go so far as to deny it! It is this denial, a product of the world's thinking and teaching, which has caused both Christianity and Christians to be looked upon with disdain all over the world today.

If our Anglo-Saxon, Celtic peoples of the world would only believe and teach the myriad scriptures which herald the fact that it is we who are the true Israelite nations in the world today - that we are the true Sons and not "grafted" Sons -- that we are the only people born with an innate desire to "be a blessing to the other nations of the world," to be God's "witness" to them, to furnish missionaries to them, to often send our "weapons of war" into their countries to rid them of political coups, dictators, diseases, ignorance, famines, etc.,-- that we do these things because God, the Sovereign Ruler of our Universe, has willed it to be so -- that, as a race, we have no choice in the matter -- that we do it for God's glory and to establish the "Kingdom of God" here on earth with his laws enforced by their governments -- that if Pastors would but preach "all of the Bible" including these Biblical truths, a great revival would quickly ensue within our countries, our "cities of Israel," and the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, the death, resurrection and saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ would be eagerly accepted within the Gentile-Pagan nations of the world. Our Lord tells us that this must be done before He comes again.

If the "Establishment" church would preach this gospel of "the Kingdom of God" here on earth, as Jesus Christ preached it in Matthew 4:17, 23:

"From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, 'Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

"And Jesus went about all Galilee teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people,"

And also preach that Jehovah-God chose this race of people to establish this kingdom to be governed by his law, then the Pagan world of non-believers may, perhaps, look upon our race more favorably than they presently do! The "world" might see then, that God's chosen race really was "given eyes to see, and ears to hear" and that "the blessings" which this race bestows upon them in the form of "foreign aid," starvation relief, Christian-backed loans to their governments, and typhoon, hurricane, tornado and drought relief actually come from Jehovah-God because he loves them, and that He gave all these material things to His "chosen" race so that they could be His "distributors" and "labor pool" here on earth! Perhaps then, "all knees will bow and tongues confess that Jesus is Lord!" After all, God works through people and governments - He does not skywrite!

If God's purpose for both His "chosen" race and His Kingdom here on earth were taught in the "Establishment" church, then the gospel of the Cross would be received more readily by the world. They would do so because they would then be able to see Christ in all of these events. Why shouldn't we experience the "Joy of Jesus" as we continue to be God's "Battle Axe" as He continues to build His Kingdom here on earth?

Even as this is written, the evening news is filled with the reporting of our government going before the United Nations to seek permission to use our troops to assure our relief supplies being delivered to the starving men, women and children of Somalia, a Black country in Africa which has been ruled, at one time or another by Germany, Italy, Britain and the United Nations⁹, but became an independent nation in 1960. It was necessary for us to send our "weapons of war" to Somalia, because the native warring factions there (all black) would forcibly take all the supplies previously sent by Christian relief societies (all white) for themselves, leaving the masses to starve. This is a prime example of God using His "Battle Axe" to "deliver the goods." It remains to be seen whether the world will praise or condemn us for this action! It might be added here that in days past we would have made this decision ourselves, rather than seek the permission of the non-believing, anti-Christ United Nations.

As we remember the "world" is composed principally of non-believers, which Christ himself branded as "anti-Christ", we will not be surprised when these anti-Christians hurl their barbs... the accusations... their race hating slogans at us for doing God's will! This "goes with the turf," so to speak, for doing good! Remember too, that it was non-believers who killed the Lord Jesus Christ and also the Prophets. We know this because Christ told us so! The Bible tells us much more than what we are told in our current religious teachings. The Apostle Paul warns us in

II Peter 2:1-2:

⁹ Perhaps if the Black Somalians knew the "Israel truth," they would want some of these chosen people back to rule their country. Perhaps if those in our country knew this truth, rather than seek "reparations" for our having transported them out of their slavery in Africa, they would praise the Lord for our having done so!

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of."

As you can see from the above scripture and many others quoted thus far, the information given therein is not the common knowledge of most Christians; However the Lord knew this would happen, and it is for this reason He gave us the following admonition found in II Timothy 2:15:

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." This is what we have done in the foregoing.

We have learned conclusively that Israel (not Jews) is God's "Battle Axe" on earth, and we can also reason that this "weapon of war" must be wielded by the "company (commonwealth) of nations" that were to spring from the "seed of Ephraim." (The term Ephraim is used extensively as a synonym for Israel in the Bible.) Also, it is reasonable to assume that these Israel nations would all have governments based on Jehovah-God's law, and that they would necessarily have a kingdom form of government with a King or Queen, and a throne. It is this throne which has to have been perpetual, as it is the throne which Jesus Christ will occupy upon His return.

It has already been established that there has been, and is, only one such commonwealth of nations on earth, and the mother country, England, is also called the "BRITISH" people. We have related that this compounded word is comprised of the Hebrew words "Brith-Ish," which are translated "Covenant Man." And their country is called "BRITAIN" from the Hebrew "Brith Ain" = "Covenant Land." Another name for their "commonwealth" is the "UNITED KINGDOM" or "UK." So we have the covenant people, the only race with whom God made a contract, located in their new land, THE ISLES OF THE SEA AND COASTLANDS, with a KINGDOM form of government, and whose lineage goes back from Queen Elizabeth II to Zedekiah, the last Davidic King of Judah.¹⁰

The following is the most amazing discovery which I have made, and there have been many, since I embarked upon my mission to find the "LOST SHEEP OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL."

We all know the story of Jacob wrestling all night with an "Angel of the Lord," and being completely exhausted, he placed his head on a stone for a pillow. God changed his name to Israel, and from that day forward, he used the stone as a Pillar for an altar to God... hence "Jacob's Pillar Stone." This is the last we hear of the stone in the Bible. Also the last we hear of the prophet Jeremiah is when the Lord told him to take the daughters of King Zedekiah to safety in Egypt since He (God) was going to bring ruin to both Zedekiah and his kingdom. God followed through on this promise, and Zedekiah is the last Davidic King to serve there!

In the chronicles of Ireland we find that a "prophet" came from Egypt with an entourage, including a scribe named Simeon Baruch and two daughters of Zedekiah named Scota and Tea Tephi. THEY ALSO BROUGHT WITH THEM JACOB'S PILLAR STONE! Tea Tephi married Prince Heremon, the heir to the Irish throne, and when he was ascended, she was also made Queen. Her sister, Scota, had already married in Iberia (Spain), which is the Hebrew word for Hebrews, and it was for her that Ireland received one of its earlier names: "Scotia." From this point on, all of the Kings and Queens of Ireland were crowned while sitting on the "Pillar Stone" atop the "Hill of Tara."

¹⁰ See "Jacob's Pillar: A Biblical Historical Study," by E. Raymond Capt, M.A., A.I.A., F.S.A., Scot., 1977, for his complete genealogy. Also, the author's expertise is genealogy with some thirty years experience including several trips to London. etc. This royal lineage is also found in many of their own publications.

Fergus Mor McEirc, the founder of the Scottish monarchy and one of the Blood Royals of Ireland, received the stone in Scotland, and Kenneth MacAlpin finally deposited it in the Monastery of Scone (846). Thus, all of the Kings and Queens of Scotland were crowned on the "Stone of Scone" and, of course, we know that James VI of Scotland became James I of England, and gave us the King James translation of the Latin Bible as our English K.J.V. in 1611. (An accident? Hardly!) The stone was brought to London by Edward I in 1296 A.D. and placed in Westminster Abbey. King Edward had a beautiful hardwood chair carved to hold the stone which was placed just below the seat of the throne chair. This is the "Coronation Chair" in which Queen Elizabeth II of England and her predecessors have been crowned.

A picture of the chair with "Jacob's Pillar Stone" attached to the bottom of the seat is shown here. It is taken out of the official guide to the Abbey. I have seen it... I know that it is there! Also, a picture of the "Pillar Stone" is included so that you may see how much the stone is worn from a pole having been placed through one iron-carrying ring to the other! How many centuries would it take to wear this groove in the top of the stone when one would suppose that it was moved only occasionally? But the greater question is: Why hasn't the "Establishment" church told us these things, and myriad others regarding our racial history? They do not even tell us about the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel" and their Assyrian Captivity! Yet God told us in II Samuel 7:13:

"He (David) shall build a house for my name, and I (God) will establish the throne of his (David's) kingdom forever."

"Jacob's Pillar Stone"
(The Stone of Scone)

“The Coronation Chair”
(With Jacob’s Pillow Stone)