"Not The Same People"

(II Kings 17:18) "...and there was none left in the Promised Land except the House of Judah---"

Folks, this verse alone should teach you that the "House of Israel" and the house of Judah were not the same people. This is not to say that God did not choose a Race of people – he did – however he broke the Race into 12 tribes, Manasseh, and Ephraim, (Joseph's two sons) who were also made tribes - however, when this happened, their father Joseph son of Jacob-Israel, seemed to have faded away, and was no longer considered one of the 12 tribes of Israel. Therefore some bible expositors consider Ephraim and Manasseh in the mix and state there are 13 tribes – 12 – 1 Joseph = 11 + 2 Ephraim & Manasseh = 13

Also there are those who say, and also write books and articles, which state, seemingly with proof, that the Jews today are from Judah, therefore, they are Israelites, and belong in the Holy Land. I say to them:

1. You are ignorant of what God's word says about this, or
2. You do know, and are afraid to quote it, or
3. You know the truth, but lie about it to carry favor to the Anti-Christ.

If you want the truth of this matter read on. I am a genealogist, and have studied it for 44 years, which include trips to the great Mormon Library in Salt Lake City, Utah, USA, the New England Library and Historical Society, the Harvard Union Library in Cambridge, and the British Historical Museum and Library in London.

You will never completely understand your King James Holy Bible without the knowledge and interest in – genealogy. (The bible begins with the book of Gene-sis.) It is the bloodline of Adam, which runs thru Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob-Israel that courses through the entire bible! The bible was written by Israel (not Jews) for Israel (not Jews), and about Israel (not Jews).

This Jacob-Israel bloodline which, runs thru King David that we must consider at all times when studying the scriptures – yes, and it continues on down to the New Testament times. Listen to what the Apostle Paul tells us in (Romans 11:1).

"Has God forsaken Israel, God forbid, I too, am an Israelite", (not Jew) <sup>1</sup> "of the tribe of Benjamin---"

We can see here that Paul never considered himself a Jew. (Nobody does but the establishment Church of today!)

"PROOFS OF ISRAEL - XXVIII"

There is one Biblical, and Historical figure in the Bible who, as far as the Jews are concerned and many Christians, stands head & shoulders above the rest and that is Moses. They all teach and preach that Moses was a Jew; but why wouldn't they, if they teach that Moses as well as all Judah, were Jews!

I say, "Moses was not a Jew", and you say, "but he was a Jew – the bible says that he was a Jew!" Well, let us go to both the bible and Webster's Dictionary to settle the argument. There is absolutely no other way to get at the truth of the matter!

- I. The Bible (KJV) – Absolutely nowhere, in the Bible, old or new Testaments, does it say that God chose the Jews – nor does it call them Israel – it simply calls them Jews!
- II. Webster's Dictionary – 1977 Colligate
  1. "Originally, a member of the tribe of Judah." (Racially, an Israelite)
  2. Later, (3-4 centuries before Christ) "Anyone who was an inhabitant of Judea." (Political boundary – If you live in Texas; you are a Texan).
  3. "After the Diaspora, (70 A.D. scattering of the Jews)", anyone who embraced Judaism as a religion." – Religious nomenclature.

Now let's apply these three definitions to Moses, and see if he was a "Jew" or not!

1. Moses was a "Levite", of the Tribe of Levi – not "Judah", so he does not qualify as a "Jew" on the Racial Index".
2. Moses never set foot in the "Promised Land", therefore he was never an "inhabitant of the land," and does not qualify here!
3. Since Judaism, "the religion of the Jews", did not appear in the "Promised Land" until circa 515 B.C., and Moses had been dead some 936 years prior to that time, it is safe to say that he was not a "Jew" because of his religion". Since Moses was not a Jew by none of the 3 depictions, Moses was not a Jew.

So, the 64 dollar question is, "How could Moses possibly be a Jew: as the Church teaches? If the "Establishment Church" is guilty of this folly, or "Jewish Fable", what else are they guilty of? The truth is plenty! In the 15th century the "Church" was teaching that the earth was flat, and if you went too far out in it the sea dragons would get you. If they didn't then you would eventually fall off the edge, etc.

And who proved them wrong? A young, unfettered, God believing lad by the name of Christopher (Christ-like) Columbus of Genoa Italy.

Columbus believed in the Lord and his word, (the Bible) teaches that the earth is round (sphere). JER 51:15 Ferrar Fenton Verson:

"He made the earth by his power, By His knowledge, He formed the spheres, And spread out the skies by His skill!"
