"Abraham was not a Jew "

The Church says that Abraham was the first Hebrew. They say this because they are not into genealogy. Perhaps it is because they are afraid the Mormons will steal some of their "thunder." But start with Genesis (Genes) and end with Revelation, it is all about the genes of Abraham, down to the genes of Jesus Christ. It might be said that "the Bible is about Israel, for Israel, and written by Israel!"

There are racial characteristics all throughout the Bible for those who want to look for them. And I do. I am a genealogist. This is my calling! The Lord has given me insights that I did not get in books. (Although I have a master Degree) To a degree, I approach the Bible from a racial point of view. I will give you a piece of the insight.

David - when they went out to tell him that God had chosen him to be King of Judah, the Bible says that, "...Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to..." I SAM 16:12

We are going to rightly divide the truth, as we are instructed to do!

Ruddy – "to show blood in the checks." (David was ruddy.) To show heritage genealogy, we have to go only to ADAM – Hebrew word "to show blood in the cheeks, blush" etc.

So we know that Adam was a white man, because only the uncolored white man can be ruddy. The reason is that blood will not show up in the face of other people because it can only be seen in the uncolored race. So you have two kinds of people: colored and uncolored. Then Adam was a white man, and it is the Adamic race to which the white race (Aryans) belongs.
