Respondents:

PETITION FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

(I)

COMES NOW, Barbara Martin, Petitioner, who respectfully requests this Honorable Court to issue a declaratory judgment that Petitioner is a De Jure Citizen under the Preamble of the original Constitution for the united States of 1787, and of this State's Constitution, and in support thereof shows the following:

(II)

Petitioner would show that there is a valid, bona fide dispute between herself and the parties listed as Respondents above concerning the class of Citizenship held by Petitioner. Petitioner maintains that she is a member of the Posterity of "We the People", the sovereign body who ordained and established the Constitution for the united States of America, and thereby the United States government, that she is a Freeman and a De jure Citizen to the PREAMBLE of that Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Texas. Petitioner asserts that her status as a Citizen of the united States exists by natural right and by virtue of her Citizenship to the PREAMBLE of the Constitution for the State of Texas and was NOT conferred upon her by any state or federal government, and does not emanate from, by, through, or under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States of America.

(III)

Respondents claim that Petitioner is a "person" a De facto citizen within the meaning of the Fourteenth Amendment of 1868, of the United States Constitution and that Petitioner's Citizenship status emanates from the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment of 1868, and that Petitioner therefore is a subject of the United States government and as such is subject to the jurisdiction thereof.

(IV)

As authority in support of her contention Petitioner submits for this Court's review the following documents:

- a. Memorandum of Law
- b. Rescission Documents
- c. Genealogy of Petitioner
- d. Black's Law Dictionary Sixth Edition
- e. Black's Law Dictionary Fifth Edition
- f. Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary

WHEREFORE Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court review the documentation and authorities submitted herewith, and that the Court issue a declaratory judgment declaring Petitioner's legal status with respect to the respondents herein, and with respect to the controversy described herein, to be that of a free, white, De jure Citizen to the PREAMBLE of the Constitution for the united States and to the PREAMBLE of this State's Constitution, and that Petitioner is a member of the Posterity of that class of De jure Citizens who form the sovereign body of this nation and who have ordained and established the Constitution for the United States of America.

Subscribed this 10th day of February, 1995 A.D.

Respectfully Submitted

Barbara Martin
